HONOR TO GRANT

Dedication of the Last Resting Place of the Nation's Hero.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MONUMENT

It Is of Solid White Granite of the Grecian Doric Order.

It is a Fitting Place For the Great General's Remains to Rest—Hundreds of Thousands Witness the Impending Parade. Union and Confederate Veterans in the Immense Procession—United States and Foreign Warship Tars March Side by Side—President McKinley and Distinguished Guests.

New York, April 27.—The final resting place of General U. S. Grant was dedicated today with appropriate impressive ceremonies in the presence of hundreds of thousands of people. At 9:20 the president and other distinguished guests left the Fifth Avenue hotel escorted by a squadron of cavalry, proceeded to the tomb, where a stand in the open air had been set apart for them.

At 10:30 the head of the parading column moved from Madison Square. At 11 o'clock, the exercises at the tomb, these were veterans on the one hand, naval veterans, naval cadets of New York city, Sons of Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans. Next came the civic organizations and last the naval division, composed of United States sailors and those accompanying the different foreign warships in attendance upon the ceremonies.

GRANT MONUMENT.

Description of the New Tomb Dedicated Today.

New York, April 27.—One hundred feet above mean high water of the Hudson river, the Grant monument stands, a solid pile of white granite 150 feet in height. The first 72 feet of this height is a cube of the Grecian doric order which measures 90 feet on all sides.

The entrance, on the southern side, is enclosed by a portico made up of a row of recessed columns. Above and behind the portico rises an almost blank wall, which will one day be relieved by the four equestrian statues shown usually in plans of the monument and finishes in a parapet which shows upon its face the sculptured figures of peace and war. Above the parapet there starts abruptly a cupola, 70 feet in diameter, surrounded as a relief, with ionic columns. Around the crown of the cupola a line of fascies, surmounted with eagles, connects the columned drum with the pyramidal top. The flawless granite of which the tomb consists is of dotted whitish gray taken from a quarry of uniform grain, and is so light in tone that in a strong sunlight it is hardly distinguishable from marble.

RIVERSIDE PARK.

Fitting Place For the Monument of a Nation's Hero.

New York, April 27.—Riverside Park is, indeed, a fitting place for the tomb of a hero. Nestled on the banks of the Hudson it seems to lift itself up from the smoke and grime of the scenes below to a purer atmosphere. Massive walls of gray granite that from the river look like rows of parapets guard the park on the waterfront. The steep incline is thickly wooded and only here and there can the gray rugged sides of the hill be seen from the river.

From no other point in the city can such a view be obtained as from Riverside park. For 20 miles the placid Hudson can be seen winding its winding way to where the tall mist-covered palisades blend with the western horizon. On the Jersey side is old Fort Lee, the ferryhouse and dainty villas that dot the banks and look like Swiss chalets nestling in the warmth of the Alpine summer, with no grim, snowy peaks to cast a shadow on their rural loveliness.

On the bosom of the Hudson, palatial pleasure yachts, ferryboats, steamers and puffing tugs make their way by summer, while in winter solitary craft plows through ice and silent grandeur reigns. Looking to the east are the signs of a great city, the tall smokestacks of factories, the hum from the busy streets and the distant shriek of trains and ships. To the south is the smoke of Jersey City, with its myriads of masts and outlines of docks that gradually grow indistinct until nothing is seen but the blue waters of the bay, that seem to mingle with the eastern sky.

THE OLD TOMB.

Woeful Contrast to the Present Resting-Place of the General.

New York, April 27.—The old tomb of General Grant, in which his body was laid Aug. 8, 1885, 16 days after death, is a squat little brickbuilt affair which was intended as a temporary restingplace for the body and held it for almost 12 years, stands as a woeful contrast to the new tomb in which the remains are to rest for all time. Although a constant guard was kept at this tomb and the grating kept always locked, half a dozen years ago the guardians discovered one day that the tomb was more strictly kept after that and the vandals, who would doubtless have carried away the very bricks of the wall if permitted, were kept away.

BUILT BY SUBSCRIPTION.

It Is Thought Ninety Thousand People Contributed.

New York, April 27.—The funds necessary to erect the tomb of General Grant dedicated today were raised by popular subscription and it is estimated that 90,000 people contributed sums ranging from 1 cent to $5,000. In all $559,000 was secured. The unexpended balances were kept in trust companies and drew 3 per cent interest, so the sum increased until it amounted to about $600,000. With the exception of about $50,000 the entire fund was raised in New York city.

McKINLEY'S TRAIN.

It Reached New York Without Accident. Trip Uneventful.

New York, April 27.—President McKinley, Mrs. McKinley and his cabinet, Mrs. U. S. Grant and her family and a company of official personages, including the ambassadors, ministers and attaches of the diplomat corps and high officers of the army and navy, were safely transported from Washington to New York yesterday in a special train of the Pennsylvania railroad to participate in the ceremonies at the tomb of General Grant. The trip was rapid and uneventful, the train running as smoothly as railroad travel could be imagined. The train steamed into Jersey City depot shortly after 8 o'clock. From Jersey City the party was conveyed across the river on the ferryboat Pittsburg to the foot of Twenty-third street, there to be ushered into carriages and escorted in procession by a detachment of cavalry, sailors and police to the Fifth Avenue hotel.

Dismissed For Want of Jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The supreme court in an opinion by Chief Justice Fuller has dismissed, for want of jurisdiction, the case of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company against the city of Louisville. The suit was a test case to determine whether the railroad company was entitled to a discount on tax bills under the state law of 1884 which, while providing for a general discount for early payment of taxes, did not in terms include railroad property.

Ottumwa Partially Inundated—River Five to Six Miles Wide.

OTTUMWA, Ia., April 27.—The Des Moines river, which 24 hours was stationary at the high water mark established by the great flood of 1892, suddenly began to climb yesterday and soon added 15 inches to the record. The levees broke in many places, railroad embankments were undermined and hundreds of families were compelled to quit their residences in great haste. In Ottumwa over 300 families were compelled to move, a large number making their escape in boats.

At Eddyville, 15 miles north of this city, 150 families vacated their domiciles, and the principal streets are being navigated in rowboats.

At South Ottumwa the river flows parallel with the main street. It broke across this street, poured down the business and residence streets, causing a panic and a scramble for higher ground. Five thousand people reside in this suburb. Several hundred deserted their residences and removed their goods. The water stands four feet deep in Fairview. Farm lands are completely inundated.

A large reservoir situated at the summit of Court Hill is the source of considerable fear. The recent pour down has swollen the sources of supply and the reservoir is now so full that it threatens to burst and flood the populous districts just below.

Although the railroad companies have made strenuous efforts to save their property, traffic is almost at a standstill. All the small streams in southern Iowa are out of their banks. Railroad bridges are gone and travel by highway is out of the question. The Burlington main line between Chicago and Denver is cut into by five miles of inundated track.

Rich farming lands above and below this city are inundated. The flood there has not reached a high stage but has spread out in many places to the width of five or six miles. No loss of life has been reported but the damage to property will be very large.

At Vicksburg.

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 27.—The flood situation shows little change here. Nearly all of the refugees have been removed into Camp Warren. There is much anxiety over the prospective duration of the flood. The Louisiana levees north of here are still holding, but some sections are reported very weak.

FIFTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

Mr. Harris' First Appearance in the Senate For Weeks.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The senate chamber had a deserted appearance when the session opened yesterday, many of the senators having gone to New York to attend the Grant ceremonies. Mr. Harris of Tennessee was at his desk for the first time in many weeks and was congratulated on his recovery from a serious illness. Dr. Milburn's opening prayer made eloquent reference to the gathering of thousands to pay tribute to the great chief of state, Grant, and invoked that the glow of patriotism freshly enkindled may strengthen our nation, our government and the Union of the States.

When the Indian bill was reported back from the house an effort was made to send it to conference, but Mr. Gorman objected, saying that it had been understood that no business whatever was to be transacted. Thereupon, the senate adjourned till Thursday.

In the House.

The house held a purely formal session yesterday. After the reading of the journal an adjournment was immediately taken until Thursday. The president's message, transporting the report of the Mexican boundary commission, however, was received before adjournment.

Nominations.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the names of W. R. Day of Ohio, to be first assistant secretary of state; Bellamy Storer of Ohio, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Belgium; and Frank E. Benjamin, to be postmaster at Terre Haute, Ind.

Feeling of Hostility Growing in Athens Against the Palace Authorities—Preparations Making to Enable the Royal Family to Leave the Country—May Be a Revolution.

London, April 27.—The most serious feature in the Greco-Turkish emergency is the revolutionary feeling displayed at Athens. Ex-Minister Ralli, leader of the principal opposition group in the legislative assembly, threatened that unless the military staff was changed he would issue a proclamation to the people. His statements acted like oil upon fire, and the popular excitement has flared up. Crowds assembled in the streets to discuss them and wanted to march to the palace to read them to King George. Fortunately, heavy showers drove the people indoors.

M. Delyannis, keenly alive to the necessity of immediate action, had an audience with the king, and after the interview, announced that the staff of the crown Prince would be recalled and that ex-Minister Ralli, with three of his nominees, General Smolenski, General Mavromichali and Colonel Dimopolou, would be appointed to replace them. M. Ralli, in a published interview, says: "The moment Constantine arrived at the seat of war the sole thought of the responsible commanders was not to attack or to withstand the Turks, but to effect a safe retreat if necessary. All orders emanated from the palace. Those issued by anyone else were ignored. When dispatches were sent to General Mavromichali, he was not where he was supposed to be, having been moved by superior orders."

A correspondent says: All of M. Ralli's conditions have been accepted. The king gives carte blanche to his ministers. As the public begins to learn the truth, anger against the palace party increases and a feeling of hostility against M. Delyannis is steadily growing. Late last night crowds were parading menacingly in the vicinity of the palace.

It is Reported on Good Authority that arrangements are being made to enable the royal family to leave the country hastily in case of necessity. People had generally credited the rumors that the crown prince would be recalled and that the government was willing to consider peace overtures. It is impossible to say what will happen when it is known that the war is to be continued and the crown prince retained in command.

The correspondent of The Times at Yolo, in a dispatch dated Saturday, says the general impression there is that the campaign is ended and that the center of interest has been transferred from the seat of war to the diplomatic chancelleries of Europe.

PECULIAR BIRD.

It Is a Stranger to This Latitude—Caught in a Wheatfield.

WEST UNION, O., April 27.—Edward Grooms captured a strange bird east of here. It was caught while feeding in a wheatfield. The bird is a stranger to these parts and is peculiar because of its great length compared with the thinness of its body, it being three feet long and not bigger around than a man's arm. It has a bill five inches long that is smooth and round. Its legs are 15 inches long, very slim and of a greenish color. Its claws are nearly two inches in length. Sick Headache.

NEURALGIA AND EXTREME NERVOUSNESS.

EVER since I was eighteen years old until I learned of Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies, I suffered from sick headache and extreme nervousness and dyspepsia. In time heart disease developed. I was treated by several doctors with no relief. Severe palpitation with pain in left breast, shortness of breath, and smothering spells made me most miserable. I procured Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure and took them alternately as directed. Improvement began at once and increased so rapidly that inside of six months I increased thirty six pounds in weight. All pain in the heart is gone, and the nervousness has wholly left me."

A. J. Thurston is very much of the opinion that the wheat crop of the entire county is going to be very short and that good prices will prevail at harvest time and after that prices will increase. A few days ago he purchased 1,000 bushels of wheat from a farmer paying him sixty-seven and a half cents per bushel. He related this transaction to another friend when the friend offered Mr. Thurston $150 for his bargain, the offer being declined. Mr. Thurston does not make many mistakes. —Shelbyville Republican.

Public School Visitation Day.

Another school year is drawing rapidly to its close. Our superintendent and his force of teachers have worked faithfully and conscientiously for the advancement of their respective pupils, and we are satisfied that the end of the year will show marked progress all along the line.

Now in order that the patrons, as well as the general public, may have an opportunity to observe the workings of our schools and also see the attainments of the pupils in their respective rooms, the school officials have set apart Friday, April 30, for a public reception and visitation day, on which we shall be pleased to see all the friends of education and to have all parents of children attending our schools visit and inspect the same.

By order of the Board of School Trustees. H. J. SIEBENBERGEN, Secy.

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents.

HOW TALC IS QUARRIED.

Where It Comes From and the Manner of Sending It to Market.

At Luzerne, in the upper valley of the Ariege, talc is quarried on an extensive scale in the granite of St. Barthelémy, a mountain 7,700 feet high and about 20 miles from the main chain of the Pyrenees. The quarries, which are situated about two miles from the summit and 5,900 feet above the sea, are opened in a bedded deposit, included between micaceous below and lower silurian slates above, which has been followed for about 2,000 yards in a north and south direction, with a dip of about 60 degrees to the east, the thickness varying from 160 to 1,000 feet, as does also the composition. Masses of limestone and granite, the latter often of considerable size, are frequently found included in the silicate of magnesia, which also contains some alumina.

The best rock is of a brilliant white color and feels greasy to the touch when ground to fine powder. The principal quarry, at Tremoulin, is worked in the open, across the direction of the bed, forming two or three terraces 50 feet high, the surface covering, 6 to 10 feet thick, having been first stripped. The stuff broken is carried by a level, in the bottom of the quarry, driven in the foot wall of the vein to the valley of Axiat, whence it is hauled in bullock wagons about 12 miles to the works of Luzerne, where a water power of 90 horsepower is obtained from the Ariege. The mechanical preparation includes sizing by sieves, driving in a rotating cylinder furnace, breaking, grinding and sifting. Nearly the whole of the product is converted into powder, only a small part being made into pencils for marking out work on metal or sold in the lump form.—Colliery Guardian.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition or hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

John P. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John P. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes it incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

Something to Depend on.

SUMMER OUTINGS.

Seashore, Mountain and Lake Resorts.

The principal places of summer sojourn along the Atlantic Ocean, in the Alleghenies, the Adirondacks, Catskills, and mountains of the East, and the lake region and northern Michigan and the Northwest, may be readily reached over the Pennsylvania Lines.

Special information regarding the leading resorts and the advantages enjoyed in journeying to them over the Pennsylvania route has been compiled and printed in convenient form. The matter is profusely illustrated with photographic reproductions of seashore scenes and includes views at Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Branch and other resorts along the Atlantic Coast; also of Cresson, Bedford Springs and romantic mountain retreats, and of Peteskey, Mackinac and the summer havens in Michigan and the Northwest.

Persons contemplating summer outing trips will find it a valuable guide in shaping preliminaries. Copies may be obtained by addressing Geo. E. Rockwell, District Passenger Agent, Indianapolis, Ind.

Vacation Days.

In the lake regions of Wisconsin, Northern Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa and South Dakota, along the lines of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, are hundreds of charming localities preeminently fitted for summer homes, nearly all of which are located on or near lakes which have not been fished out. These resorts range in variety from the "full dress for dinner" to the flannel shirt costume for every meal. Among the lists are names familiar to many of our readers as the perfection of northern summer resorts. Nearly all of the Wisconsin points of interest are within a short distance from Chicago or Milwaukee, and none of them are so far away from the "busy marts of civilization" that they cannot be reached in a few hours of travel, by frequent trains, over the first road in the Northwest—the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. Send a two cent stamp for a copy of "Vacation Days" giving a description of the principal resorts, and a list of summer hotels and boarding houses, and rates for board, to Geo. H. Sick Headache.

Neuralgia and Extreme Nervousness.

EVER since I was eighteen years old until I learned of Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies, I suffered from sick headache and extreme nervousness and dyspepsia. In time heart disease developed. I was treated by several doctors with no relief. Severe palpitation with pain in left breast, shortness of breath, and smothering spells made me most miserable. I procured Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure and took them alternately as directed. Improvement began at once and increased so rapidly that inside of six months I increased thirty six pounds in weight. All pain in the heart is gone, and the nervousness has wholly left me.

Indianapolis leads the western league and if it desires to make the heart of the average Hoosier "fan" beat with joy, it will keep up its winning pace throughout the season.

An Indianapolis so-called literary club has black-balled Governor Mount because he is a farmer. The governor is not half so much worried about following the plow as are the members of the society over the rejection of our common sense governor.

Nothing has contributed more to Seymour's reputation for enterprise than the putting in of our brick streets and the determination to put in six blocks more will add to the good opinion which our neighbors already hold of us.

The resignation of O. H. Montgomery as city attorney has occasioned much regret among the citizens of Seymour. Both as a lawyer and as a citizen he is held in high esteem by the people and his services as city attorney were always valuable in the highest and truest sense.

MR. BRYAN is still at least loyal to one individual. The name of that person is William Jennings Bryan. He knows that the continuation of his notoriety lies in a continuation of the strife between the two wings of the democracy. Hence his bitter attacks upon ex-President Cleveland on every possible occasion.

The school board has designated next Friday as reception day at the public schools, and extends an invitation to parents and citizens generally to visit the schools on that day. Seymour has good reason to feel proud of her public schools and our people should show their interest in the schools by accepting the invitation of the board to visit the schools next Friday.

In order to get some free advertisement the state university is frequently sending out bulletins to newspapers over the state. The registrar very generously gives the publishers the privilege of using "all or only such portions" of the items sent as they "may see fit." It is quite likely however, that most of the newspapers will "see fit" to prepare their own copy relative to the university of Indiana.

THERE are few towns in southern Indiana that have kept pace with Seymour in the matter public improvements during the past two or three years. Neighboring cities are looking toward us with envious eyes. We are gaining a name for enterprise and solidity in our business institutions that is attracting attention all over the state and is making this a desirable location for important business interests.

THE dogs would be mourning today if they could understand a decision of the United States supreme court. Down in New Orleans a Newfoundland valued at $200 was killed by the street cars and the owner sued for damages. The court decided that doggy is not a domestic animal in the sense of horses or cattle, since he is useful neither as a beast of burden nor for food. But he comes rather in the category of pets along with cats, monkeys, parrots, etc., which are kept for pleasure, curiosity or caprice and that no damages can be collected for killing of pets and the law has not fixed the rights of dogs as property.

GEN. U. S. GRANT.

Today the civilized nations of the earth join our citizens in doing honor to one of our greatest soldiers. The rise of U. S. Grant from captain of volunteers in 1861 to lieutenant general of all our armies in 1865 and his election to the presidency in 1868 seem natural enough in their sequence, but when we think of it, it is a remarkable advancement. In seven years he has sprung from an unknown position to the highest honors in the gift of the American people. But his advancement was no more rapid than his own growth. In war he rose to every military necessity and met it with a decisive success which never seemed to exhaust his reserve of power. The Globe Democrat concludes an editorial on his work with these words: "What all Americans honor in Grant was his manliness. It made friends of those who were arrayed against him in the war. Behind the stern devotion to duty entailed upon him as a military leader was a thoughtful consideration of others that was uniformly a trait of his life. He never heedlessly wounded the feelings of any one. Simplicity stamped his thoughts and deeds, and his sincerity was absolutely clear. When he was poor and unknown he must have felt that he possessed unappreciated powers, but no ambition spurred him to aggressive self-assertion. As responsibilities gathered and pressed heavily upon his shoulders he was just Grant, no more nor less. He could not have been swayed a hair's breadth from a perfectly truthful interpretation of what it was right for him to do. The monument that will henceforth mark his resting place will be precious to this nation as long as it stands, for while it is a tribute to amazing capacity, it also typifies simple, steadfast American manhood."

FILIBUSTERING EXPEDITION.

One Left Sea Isle City For Cuba With Men and Arms.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—A carefully planned expedition left for Cuba Sunday from near Sea Isle City, N. J. The supply of arms and ammunition left New York on Saturday on lighters and was placed on a tug between Barnegat and Long Branch. The tug came steadily down the coast and was soon joined by another boat.

Off Atlantic City some Cubans and Americans were picked up. Still further along a steam launch put out from Sea Isle City with another detachment and later on got another squad from Avalon. Getting out to see all hands with the munitions of war, we transferred to a black painted steamer that quickly started south.

There was none of the recognized Cuban leaders with the expedition because nearly all of them are already out of the country. There were, however, some militiamen from this city and from Camden. In the way of munitions the expedition took along a Hotchkiss gun, nearly 5,000 rifles, 120,000 rounds of ammunition, 2,000 machetes, a lot of medicine and what is known as an experimental flying machine, to be adopted if possible, to the use of dynamite. So careful were all the movements conducted that the point and the time of departure were concealed from some of those who have heretofore known all similar details.

Elevator Burned at Peoria.

PEORIA, Ills., April 27.—A fire last night completely destroyed the Iowa elevator entailing a loss of nearly $900,000. The elevator had a capacity of 400,000 bushels, and cost $110,000. It was insured for $75,000. About 100,000 bushels of grain, valued at $50,000, and fully insured, was destroyed. About 30 boxcars were burned. The origin of the fire is unknown.

THE SNOW MIRACLE.

"The age of miracles," they say, "is past; Christ walks no more upon the yielding wave. Nor does the Spirit breathe, to bless or save, Nor mortal man." And then the winter blast Comes shrieking from beyond the sunset glow; The dancing waves grow solid as a floor To bear the burden of one wonder more— God breathes upon the mist, and it is snow. —J. L. Heaton in "The Quitting Bee."

A YOUTH'S ADVENTURES.

Which, Whether Truth or Fiction, Are Decidedly Interesting.

When riding in the tram car through the wildest parts of Peckham Rye, writes a contributor to the London News, with a friend—we were bound on a journalistic errand—a bronzed young man of marine appearance jumped into the car and at once recognized my companion. Before we had gone very far I was deep in one of the oddest family histories. This new arrival, it seems, when a boy of 14, had been possessed by the fear of consumption, that fell disease having carried off his brother and threatening his father and mother. Accordingly he read every book that he could lay his hands on dealing with the subject, and, as the result of his reading, ran away to Bonemouth to be near the pines. Having no funds, he engaged himself to a local fishmonger, carrying his master's fish to the various customers. When the day's work was done, he shouldered a hammock which he had brought with him and camped among some of those pines for which that southern health resort is famous.

One night a gentleman, sauntering along, smoking a cigar, noticed him, and, being amazed at this "al fresco" bed, entered into conversation with him. "Why, I know you are," exclaimed the consumptive youth at last. "You're Mr. Louis Stevenson, the man who wrote 'Treasure Island.' " "How do you know?" said the gentleman. "Because I deliver you fish. You live at Skerryvore." "So I do," replied Stevenson, for he it was sure enough. "But you don't talk like a fishmonger's boy." "No more I do," replied the boy, and he then poured his strange secret into the novelist's ear, which was sympathetic enough, you may be sure.

The result of this odd meeting was an invitation to breakfast. "Oh, and I did eat," said the young man. He told the story so loudly that the whole train laughed. "And the servants couldn't make it out at all to see the distinguished author entertaining poor me. Then he went to Paris, and I never saw him again for a long while." The pines not proving strong enough, the strange youth was seized with a yearning for the scent of the eucalyptus and persuaded his friends to send him to sea. When he reached Sydney, he sold his outfit and ran away into the bush and lived in the open with eucalyptus galore. Thence, after many adventures, he sailed for the south seas and abode by reef and palm for many a long year.

One day when cruising as supercargo among the Gilbert islands, I think, a European swell in beautiful white duck, a great red sash and a spreading panama hat, with a peacock's feather in it, came aboard the schooner. "Good morning, Mr. Stevenson," said the supercargo. Mr. Stevenson looked and wondered who knew him in these faroff seas. "I don't know you," he said, shaking his head. "But I know you. Don't you remember the fishmonger's boy who ate such a big breakfast at Skerryvore?" "So I do. Well, the world is small indeed." And no doubt the two call such things in the islands—together. What a strange, small world it is indeed! Well, one succumbed to the dread disease; the other is as hearty a fellow as ever I saw. It was a quaint, grim fancy to go dodging phthisis all over the world!—London News.

Windowglass Manufacturers New Scheme to Maintain Prices.

ALEXANDRIA, Ind., April 26.—It is said a pool has been formed headed by T. F. Hart of the Western Glass association to buy up all the windowglass of the small concerns around the country, who feel they are unable to carry their stock. Several weeks ago assistance was rendered to some factories in the gas belt by the Western agency, and it was known that $150,000 could be secured on short notice to take glass from any manufacturer who thought his load was getting too heavy. This will make it easier for small manufacturers, and will not the pool a handsome profit, for windowglass will not be made as cheap for several years as it is being produced this season.

John P. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.
